Prayer

Our Father, we thank Thee for Thy care during our years at Dighton High School. We thank Thee for the guidance of wise teachers and the encouragement of loving parents. We ask Thy blessings to rest upon us as we step out into the future. May You show us the way to health, happiness, and prosperity. Let each one of us, in defeat or success, ever remain as faithful as the seasons.

"While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease."

Dedication

We, the class of 1957, dedicate our GOLDEN LOG to Mr. Dias and Mr. McCauley in appreciation for their outstanding guidance, their tireless efforts, their never ending patience and their wonderful understanding in helping us to attain our future goals.

Editors' Message

In presenting this, the 1957 GOLDEN LOG, we hope that as the years go by and you reread your yearbook, your four years at D.H.S. will prove to have been a great stepping stone in your life; and each year will be recalled, as are the seasons, in succession.

"So let the way wind up the hill or down, o'er rough or smooth, the journey will be joy; still seeking what I sought when but a boy; new friendships, high adventure, and a crown, my heart will keep the courage of the quest, and hope the road's last turn will be the best."

Henry van Dyke

In Appreciation

Mrs. Smith—we thank you for the many hours which you spent helping us with our edition of the Golden Log, your patience and understanding guided us through many difficulties. This assistance shall never be forgotten.

Mrs. Ring—for giving freely of your time and efforts to make our senior year at D.H.S. more enjoyable, we thank you. Your guidance as home room teacher is something which we shall always remember.

Faculty

You can't live tomorrow until it becomes today. So make each today the best you've ever lived.

Best wishes to the members of the Class of 1957 for a successful and happy future.

ROBERT T. ROY

Superintendent of Schools

The past four years of your life have been occupied with activities which were planned to foster the attributes implied in the terms Character, Service, Leadership and Scholarship.

As you leave Dighton High School it is my deepest wish that you find, in the years ahead, the greatest of success through a dedication to these ideals.

Class History

"DEAR DIARY"

SEPTEMBER, 1953—Dighton High School, here we are. Accepted without qualms into the class of '57. Smiling faces —friendly greetings—terrifying turmoil! Stairs and bells. Comical confusion in wrong room, at wrong time. Classes, small and large. Teachers in all variations of size and disposition. We like it here.

OCTOBER, 1953—An era of leadership led by our President, Joan Copeland; assisted by Vice President, Beverly Broadbent; Secretary, Wayne Gray; Treasurer, Robert Rose; has begun. New faces and new friends, lots of homework mixed with fun.

NOVEMBER, 1953—Football being the major attraction at this time, we contributed in a large measure to the spirit of the season with Robert Viveiros, Bruce Spooner, Fred Petty, Raymond Torres, and Robert Rose representing us on the team.

To help stimulate the fans, Natalie Costa was chosen to represent us on the cheering squad.

DECEMBER, 1953—Winter wields its power in Dighton. Brr! First big dance for little underclassmen. Thrills, frills, chills. How we looked forward to Christmas and a rest!

JANUARY, 1954—Back to the old grind. The month of work first; then pleasure.

Our first money-making project: the Freshman Dance. To make our dance a big success, our advisor, Mr. McCauley, entertained us with a few songs.

FEBRUARY, 1954—Hearts and flowers! A social must—"The Mardi Gras." With the auditorium transformed into a circus, our representatives Natalie Costa and Francis Barboza danced amidst color and glamour. Mid-winter relaxation. We need it, but definitely.

MARCH, 1954—Just four more months to go. It'll be a wonder if we make it.

To the legislative body of our school, the Student Council, we elected Steven Hall, Madeline Simmons, and Joseph Vargas. While viewing the Talent Show, we were amazed to discover so much talent among us.

APRIL, 1954—Our Dramatic Club was in a state of confusion preparing for the play contest which brought experience, if not the prize. Basketball drawing to an end meant baseball was on its way.

MAY, 1954—Spring fever. What a month!

Another big night; another new gown; the Junior Prom brought out everyone in town.

JUNE, 1954—Finals and more finals, and then our outing to College Pond. A happy way to end this year.

Now for our summer vacation and preparation for our sophomore year.

"DEAR DIARY"

SEPTEMBER, 1954—Hi! We're back. No longer green and dewy-eyed. Poor Frosh, you'll learn. We did.

We are all ready to go with our capable leaders Barbara Sellars, President; Robert Rose, Vice President; Judith Barry, Assistant Vice President; Janice Baptiste, Secretary; Laurelie Walker, Treasurer.

OCTOBER, 1954—"Fight, fight with all your might," that is the cry being heard around Dighton High these days by Beverly Broadbent, Janice Baptiste, and Nancy Cambra, our new additions to the cheering squad.

NOVEMBER, 1954—As before, our class was well represented on the football team by Robert Terry, Robert Rose, Fred Petty, and Manuel Phillips.

Our football dance, successful, of course, added greatly to our treasury.

DECEMBER, 1954—So soon it has arrived again, snowflakes, and zero temperatures.

Dighton High celebrates the season with the annual Christmas dance sponsored by, guess who, "US."

JANUARY, 1955—Back to the books again.

Looking out for the welfare of the students were Joan Copeland and Madeline Simmons, our representatives to the Student Council.

FEBRUARY, 1955—Come to the Mardi Gras! New formals, new suits, and sparkling ties made a very exquisite scene. Floats were a new and gay attraction. Our own "Little Miss Muffet," Natalie Costa, and Manuel Phillips, were our candidates.

MARCH, 1955—Basketball, one of our favorite sports, is as exciting as ever. Adding to this excitement are Ace Tolley, Raymond McChroan, and Robert Ferreira, from our class.

APRIL, 1955—Our parents see us at our best in the play contest. It's hard to take defeat, but we'll win next year!

Open House—when our qualities, good and bad, are exposed. Parents and teachers compare notes—about us!

MAY, 1955—A month of hustle and bustle.

Class rings are chosen—The Junior Prom with its gaiety and splendor—The Spring Concert with its resonant sound —and the Track Meet.

JUNE, 1955—Summer time again!

Class day—a memorable affair for us Sophs.

That remarkable outing at Fearings Pond brings us to the threshold marked "upperclassmen."

"DEAR DIARY"

SEPTEMBER, 1955—Greetings to another year! Upperclassmen, that's us! One more year and we'll be on our way to Washington. Serious minded with plans and money-making schemes. Wholehearted participation is expected, for the class of 1957 never shirks!

OCTOBER, 1955—Elections for this gala year. Steve Hall, chosen to lead; Isabel Tolley, to aid; Caroline Rose, to note our activities; and that money man, Joseph Vargas.

Victory at last in the annual Magazine Drive, with Sam Pratt as our high salesman.

NOVEMBER, 1955—Football after a lapse of too much time. The team was supported by many juniors. Robert Viveiros, Charles Brown, Manuel Phillips, Robert Ferreira, and Fred Petty made the junior cheering section twice as loud and proud.

DECEMBER, 1955—Finally we received our class rings. We really felt like upperclassmen now. For a few days we showed them to everyone we saw.

With the Christmas Dance came the holidays.

JANUARY, 1956—Alas and alack—mid-years! Peace is never lasting. We are happy to be well represented on the executive board of the Student Council with Joan Copeland serving as Vice President, Steven Hall as Treasurer, and Caroline Rose as Secretary.

FEBRUARY, 1956—Excitement galore—"The Mardi Gras!"

Swirls and curls, gowns and frowns, dancers and prancers (ouch!). Mary Carvahlo and Alfred Tolley made a lovely couple as our junior attendants.

MARCH, 1956—The basketball teams are ending the season with several members of the class of '57 sharing the limelight. They are Ace Tolley, Robert Viveiros, and Warner Goff.

Helping to cheer the team on at the Tech Tourney were our own new members of the cheering squad, Caroline Rose and Linda Kristofferson.

APRIL, 1956—That unforgettable paper drive! All the confusion and work, but it was worth it. Money! Money! Money!

With the Play Contest just around the corner, our Dramatic Club was prepared to thrill the audience with an exciting drama.

MAY, 1956—Junior Prom! Hey, that's us—the class of '57!

This formal affair has to be extra special. It must be supercolossal! It was. With Janice Baptiste as the chairman of the decorations committee, "Candy Land" was a big success.

We were very happy when Jean Pothier, Barbara Sellars, Caroline Rose, Judy Barry, Joan Copeland, Beverly Broadbent, Laurlie Walker, Margaret Barry, Irene Simmons and Ronald Reynolds of our class were elected to the Honor Society.

JUNE, 1956—Class day—Daisy chain of honor for the seniors —Steven accepting Clifford's hopes for the future and gift for the school. Congrats, Joan Copeland—the Chase Award and D.A.R. History Award are something to be proud of.

Returning again to Fearings Pond, lots of fun was had by all. Good luck, seniors. We hope we can fill your shoes.

"DEAR DIARY"

SEPTEMBER, 1956—Seniors are we! Back for the biggest and best year. Plans—plans—plans. Money-making schemes for our long awaited trip to Washington.

Who to lead us? None other than Steven Hall, assisted by Joan Copeland, Thelma Mull, and Beverly Broadbent. Never a dull moment!

With the assistance of our newly appointed advisor, Mr. Richard Dias, and homeroom teacher, Mrs. Louise Ring, we began our senior year.

OCTOBER, 1956—"The Kick Off"—such a crowd! All of Dighton High plus Nantucket football heros and cheerleaders.

More Fun! More Money!

Work on the yearbook begins at once with editor Beverly Broadbent and assistant editors, Judy Barry and Barbara Sellars.

NOVEMBER, 1956—The Thanksgiving game put an end to the football careers of our co-captains, Bruce Spooner and Robert Viveiros, and also of Alfred Tolley, Joseph Vargas, Richard Rines, James Andrews, Arthur Martin, Larry Perry, Warner Goff, Charlie Brown, and George Silver.

Natalie Costa was chosen as captain of the cheerleaders. Four other senior girls were also on the squad.

DECEMBER, 1956—Time to distribute our Christmas cards, wrapping paper, and stationery. The extent of our salesmanship shows now. You can't beat us.

Yuletide greetings and holiday atmosphere in all the corridors. A Merry Christmas at Dighton High.

JANUARY, 1957—This is the year!

We are getting nearer Washington, but too near June. Our main problem—snow. Will it melt by February 18?

We elected two capable members of our class, Lawrence Perry and Samuel Pratt, to represent us in the Student Council, of which Steven Hall was elected president.

FEBRUARY, 1957—The yearbook staff is working like mad to produce and meet deadlines.

"The Masquerade Ball" (The Mardi Gras). More exquisite than ever. Why shouldn't we think so with our Beverly Broadbent and Alfred Tolley as Queen and King? Train, go faster! To where? To Washington, of course. The city of wonders!

Good old New York! But welcome Dighton. Here we come —excited, contented, but oh, so tired!

MARCH, 1957—Another honor for Steve, our class president! Good Government Day Representative.

Joan Copeland represents us at the D.A.R. Good Citizen Pilgrimage in Boston.

Ace Tolley, captain of the basketball team, and his teammates ended a successful season by participating in the Bay State Tournament.

APRIL, 1957—The girls' basketball team ended the season with eight senior members of the varsity playing their last game. Joan Copeland and Jean Pothier were the co-captains of the team. Making a great effort to win the play contest is our Senior Dramatic Club.

MAY, 1957—The school is buzzing with activity as the programs for Class Day and Graduation are getting underway.

Guests at the gala Junior Prom—the privilege of seniors.

My, but the end is getting near!

JUNE, 1957—Class Day and Graduation at last. We're proud of our honor students and especially of Barbara Sellars and Joan Copeland, our graduation speakers.

Dighton, we love you! May your memory of us be as bright and as beautiful as ours is of you.

JUNE 13, 1957

This is our summary of four years past.

May our friendships, like our memories—last.

Class Prophecy

The Time: 1972 (15 years from now)

Laurelie Walker, who is a journalist for the N. Y. Times, has been writing a feature story on the life of that retired gyrator, Thomas Kilgour Webster, who rose to fame and fortune in replacing that old has-been Elvis Presley. In rushing to meet her deadline, Laurelie has acquired a terrific headache, and is entering a large drugstore to purchase some aspirin. At the rear of the store, she comes face to face with the owner, who turns out to be none other than Steven Hall. They begin reminiscing about old times, when Steve suggests a soda on the house. Over at the soda fountain, they find Peggy Barry indulging in a super banana split.

Laurelie: "What are you doing now, Peg? I haven't seen you for about 15 years."

Peggy: "I'm with TWA now, working as an airline hostess. I had some time off in N. Y., and for old times' sake stayed at the Taft. There was a grouchy old house dick there who was counting towels and mumbling to himself. You'll never guess who it was!"

Steve: "Who?"

Peggy: "C. P. Brown."

Laurelie: "Speaking of hotels, I heard a rumor that Bill Ashley is the Plaza's head chef, specializing in cooking southern fried chicken for all incoming high school groups. He attributes all his culinary skill to a Miss Goodell."

Steve: "And I was shopping last week in Taunton, and met our great Senator Samuel Stanley Pratt and his charming wife, Shirley. They were taking their triplets to Mal Ferreira's School of the Dance for lessons."

Peggy: "That's nothing! When I was in N. Y., I was waiting for a cab when I saw a shiny black limousine with the monogram of 'Tex Spooner Enterprises' on the door. He's a real tycoon. Judy Barry's his private secretary and Irene Simmons is the receptionist in his Wall St. Office."

Laurelie: "I wrote an article for the Times about the battle royal that General Carol Johnson of the U.S. Marines is having with Comm. Ace Tolley of the Navy. It seems that Comm. Tolley's sailors keep invading the quarters of the lady marines. Carol has even employed that mad scientist Merle (Tweety) Smith in her frantic fight. Tweet is concocting an insecticide in an effort to repel the Sea Bees."

Steve: "I read about that Joe Vargas scandal case in the papers. Did you hear about the time Joe was betting every night on Teddy Lippold's favorite dog, 'Fleabag?' Well, it seems that in the tenth consecutive race 'Fleabag' came in last and Joe got so riled he just up and threw his diamond solitaire at the dog. Ted thought that the ring broke some of the dog's bones, as well as blinding him with the glare. The dog was rushed to the hospital, where Bev Broadbent X-rayed him and spoke the historic words to the anxious public—'Fleabag' will live to lose another race!"

Peggy: "Rose and Rines went into partnership. Bobby designs the buildings and Richie oversees the construction. Suzanne Gurney went into the tea-leaf reading business and has ordered a new building from Rose and Rines in the shape of a tea kettle. Donna Cudworth works for Suzanne reading palms and cards as a sideline."

Laurelie: "And did you hear about Homer Andrews?"

Steve: "No, what's Home been doing?"

Laurelie: "He's been making crooked dough."

Peggy: "Crooked dough?—You mean he's a racketeer?"

Laurelie: "No, he works in a pretzel factory. Janice Baptiste designs new pretzel shapes and Homer makes them."

Steve: "Pee Wee Viveiros is running a Lonely Hearts Club. He uses an IBM machine to find the right mates for his customers. Barbara Sellars, Jeanne Pothier, and Mary Carvalho are standing by with their first-aid kits in case of any broken hearts."

Peggy: "George Silver is a bachelor, although the girls still chase him. He buys a new car every week because the ashtrays keep filling up. Ray McCrohan is making a fortune selling George's cast-off cars. The girls have to make appointments with George's secretaries, Eunice Eddy and Carol Rose, before they can see him, and his telephone calls are so numerous that Nat Costa was hired to operate George's private switchboard."

Laurelie: "Bobby Terry, a master tree surgeon, has made a showplace out of Assonet. People come from all over the countryside to view the Assonet landscape, especially Profile Rock, upon whose stone Indian head Bobby has planted a head-dress of different colored trees. Paul Bilodeau and Arthur Martin help to manage Bobby's business and sell his formulas to the public."

Steve: "Adeline Torres is secretary to Warner Goff, who runs a huge beauty culture school. Nancy Cambra adds her charms to the establishment where she operates the steam cabinets. Josephine Ferreira and Helen Medeiros work in Mr. Goff's office trying to keep track of all his money. Hattie Marshall is an expert with mud packs, and Marianna Fortes is in charge of the mineral and milk baths."

Peggy: "Lawrence Perry owns the Jantzen bathing suit business. The clever designs of Bill Berthiaume's Bikinis gave Bill the top designing job with Perry's firm."

Laurelie: "Bikinis? Aren't the bloomer style suits of the early 20th century predicted to come back in fashion?"

Peggy: "Yes. Gerry Vasconcellos is kept busy in Lawrence's office filing complaints against the return of modest bathing suits. The complaints are sent in daily by Paul Pacheco and Bruce Tedford, who are manufacturing sun tan lotion and would be put out of business if the 'cover-all' suits became popular again."

Steve: "Open house was held this fall in Joan Copeland's exclusive private school, where Lyn Simmons', Linda Kristoffersons' and Lorraine LaPorte's children are taught by Joan Goodwin and Ronnie Reynolds. The only requirement of the school for entering pupils (besides money) is an I. Q. of 150 or more."

Laurelie: "Yes, I heard that Lyn, Linda, and Lorraine are all celebrating their 15th wedding anniversaries this year. They are planning a big banquet, and among the guests are inviting that heroic air ace Johnny Branco, and that daring stock-car racer, Sunny (Give-It-The-Gun) Mull."

And so ends the success story of D.H.S.'s 1957 alumni.

Class Will

We, the Class of 1957 of Dighton High School, being composed of students (?) from the great towns of Dighton, Berkley, Assonet, and Freetown and being of questionably sound mind and very unsound body, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

To the faculty we leave a large bottle of migraine pills to help them overcome their headaches.

To the freshmen we leave the hope that they may be as successful with their Christmas Dance as we were.

To the sophomore class we leave the honor and joy of being upperclassmen—finally!

To the junior class we leave the worry of making money for the Washington trip and the fun that goes with it.

Jimmy Andrews leaves his "happy-go-lucky" manner to Jackie Torres.

Bill Ashley wills his acting ability to Roland Souza.

Janice Baptiste leaves her ability to draw on P.O.D. papers to Natalie Carvalho.

Judy Barry wills a lock of her red hair to Mr. DeMarco. We think he'll appreciate it.

Peggy Barry leaves her weekends in Fall River to anyone who wants them. Hope you have as much fun as she had.

Wilfred Berthiaume wills to John Collard the art of getting into trouble in English class.

Paul Bilodeau leaves his mechanical ability to Ralph Barboza.

Shirley Billings leaves all the fun of four years to any of next year's freshmen. They'll enjoy themselves, we're sure.

John Branco leaves his shop talents to John Brown.

Beverly Broadbent leaves her pleasant all-round personality to Nancy Synan.

Eunice Eddy wills her quiet nature to Priscilla Carpenter.

Charlie Brown leaves his crew-cut to John Tavares. Johnny does all right without it, though.

Nancy Cambra leaves her height to Marie Cimino. (It'll be quite a drop.)

Mary Carvalho leaves her ability to get a good laugh out of anything to Conny Costa.

Joan Copeland wills her amazing marks, "A's" for all four years, to John Smith.

Natalie Costa leaves her fine leadership of the cheerleaders to the rest of them —fight for it, girls.

Donna Cudworth leaves her English IV book to Anita Pontes.

Josephine Ferreira wills her "LOVE" of the absence list to Claire Berthiaume, poor soul.

Madeline Ferreira wills her absentee record to Kit Perry, wonder if Kit can get away with it.

Marianna Fortes leaves her rock 'n roll style of singing to any other Eartha Kitt fan.

Warner Goff wills his "jazzy walk" to Mr. Delaney.

Joan Goodwin leaves her soft voice and quiet ways to Shirley Cummings.

Suzanne Gurney wills her ever-ready giggles to Cynthia Perry.

Steven Hall leaves his executive abilities to Michael Hurwitz.

Carole Johnson leaves all her vim, vigor, and vitality to Debbie Hopkins.

Linda Kristofferson leaves her exquisite blush to Tony Borba. (On him it should look good.)

Lorraine LaPorte wills her glowing smile and cute ways to Simone Lenny.

Ted Lippold wills his Florida sun tan to anyone who can afford it.

Hattie Marshall leaves her love of U.S. History to Josephine Paiva, who we know will feel for it.

Arthur Martin leaves his innocent looks in study hall to Brian Corr.

Raymond McCrohan leaves the privilege of driving the shop truck to Andy Miller.

Helen Medeiros leaves her Somerset Friends to those who care to go there. Remember that it's enemy territory.

Sunny Mull wills her troubles with her car to Myrna Menges, who we hope can fix it.

Paul Pacheco leaves his ability to change the subject in P.O.D. to Richard Farrar.

Larry Perry leaves his brother to graduate from D.H.S. also.

Jean Pothier wills the honor of being National Honor Society President to anyone capable of holding such an honor.

Sam Pratt wills his frequent trips to Berkley to David Carey. Don't wear out the road, Dave.

Caroline Rose wills her ability in all sports to Helen Shaw.

Barbara Sellars and Laurlie Walker leave their everlasting friendship to Judy Walker and Ginny Morrill. Have fun but be good.

George Silver leaves his crazy antics to Albert St. Louis.

Irene Simmons leaves her fingernails to Helen Horton, who certainly needs some.

Lyn Simmons wills hope of a "finger sparkler" to any girl who can make it by September 1958.

Merle Smith wills his ability to argue to Janet Pyse.

Bruce Spooner leaves his jazzy shirts to Paul Alves.

Bruce Tedford bequeaths his ability to get into trouble easily to Pete Simmons.

Bob Terry leaves his Gregory Peckish looks to Richard Donahue.

Ace Tolly leaves his long shots to that up-and-coming basketball whiz, Bob Cain.

Adeline Torres leaves the art of manuvering the Driver Ed car to next year's class.

Joe Vargas wills his "antifreeze" to anyone who is afraid of the cold.

Gerry Vasconcellos leaves her quiet ways to anyone who should practice them.

Robert Viveiros leaves his height to Douglas Arnold.

Thomas Webster leaves his endless questions to anyone who can think of them as fast as he can.

And to our advisors PEACE. Signed and sealed by — Jean P.

APPRECIATION TO OUR ADVERTISERS

The staff of the Golden Log of 1957 wish to recommend to all of our readers the fine advertisers in this book. Without their kind help, this yearbook would have been impossible financially.

MRS. LAWRENCE R. PERRY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore P. Kunsa of Meriden, Conn. ,married April 14 to 2nd Lt. Lawrence R. Perry son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Perry of Berkley.

April 1962

PERRY—KUNSA

Nancy Ann Kunsa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore P. Kunsa of Meriden, Conn., and 2nd Lt. Lawrence Russell Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Perry of Berkley St., Berkley, were married April 14 at St. Joseph's Church, Meriden, Conn.

Rev. James Carroll officiated at the double-ring, nuptial high mass ceremony. Reception was held at the Three Cups Inn in Meriden.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of satin peau de soie, fashioned with fitted bodice emproidered with Alencon lace and scoop neckline. The gown featured long tapered sleeves and bouffant skirt trimmed with scattered motifs of Alencon lace and terminating in chapel train.

Her pillbox headpiece of satin peau de soie accented with Alencon lace and pearls, held in place a bouffant veil of four tiers of pure silk illusion. She carried a missal covered with cascade of baby's breath and ivy.

Her maid-of-honor, Ida Battistini of Hartford, wore a waltz length gown of satin-faced powder-blue organza fashioned with fitted bodice with scoop neckline and short sleeves and accented by a semi-sheath front with pouf back.

She wore a matching half-cap of rosebuds trimmed with pearls attached to a face veil, and carried a bouquet of blue and white carnations.

David Perry of Berkley was best man and ushers were Peter Kunsa and Theodore Kunsa of Meriden, and Kenneth Perry of Berkley.

ASSIGNED: Thomas K. Webster Jr., seaman, U. S. Coast Guard, whose parents live at Somerset Avenue, Segreganset, has been assigned to duty aboard the Coast Guard Ocean Station Vessel Barataria, based in Portland, Me.
